MY PHYSICAL APPEARANCE AND FEATURES

I am a tall person standing at 5'8 (177cm) but also heavy weighing 90 kg (198 lbs), so I am and tall and obese at the same time. I have the features of having straight black hair but also have a very high-hairline, light skin but also a face full of acne scars, pearly black eyes with thick eye brows but also have an eyesight that ranges 350 in both eyes' visual acuity. So, in short, I have good features but also has flaws that I'm insecure of.

MY SEXUAL SELF/ GENDER SELF

I am a male, and my sexual orientation is heterosexual or in other words; straight. For me, this reflects my sense of self and how I relate and connect to others, both personally and socially. I value myself a lot as I am authentic and open-minded when it comes to learning more about myself and others as I grow as a person.

THINGS/ MATERIALS THAT I LIKE

I enjoy playing instruments, such as; Acoustic Guitar and any kinds of drums. I also like reading fictional books, like; Comics, Manga and Manhwa. I also love using technological gadgets such as phone, laptop and computers. These are things that inspire me, support my hobbies, and bring me comfort in my daily life.

MY ECONOMIC STATUS

I would describe my economic status as Middle-Class, because although I'm still a student I cannot say that "I am financially stable" as it is my mother that provides everything for me. I have no any financial achievements nor occupation that can allow me to have my own finance, but still, I am hoping that someday after I graduate, I could find a job that can allow me to say that "I am financially stable with my own earnings".

MY RELIGIOUS / SPIRITUAL BELIEFS

I was born a Christian, specifically Protestant. My family is very religious, especially my mother and even my grandparents when they were still alive, that each local pastors that are assigned in our local church became or was very close to my family even the pastors that are assigned right now. Although I am really not that religious like my family, but still I pray to God most of the time especially when I am at my lowest, as my faith to God plays an important role in my life, shaping my values, decisions, and how I interact with others. It gives me guidance and strength in any aspects of my life.

MORAL VALUES I POSSES

COMPASSION

I always show empathy and concern for others' well-being, as I don't like seeing people getting hurt physically and emotionally. Some of my friend would even say that: I am a "People Pleaser" as I would make them happy. I would also sometimes comfort my friends when they are at their lowest. But the question is: Who would comfort me if I am at my lowest?

RESPECT

It is always in my mind to respect others' rights, feelings, and even their traditions, because it is really awful to be rude and not respect them.

RESPONSIBILITY

As the man of our house, I always take responsible for my actions and obligations, because it is my duty to be the pillar of our home even though I have an older brother because he already has a family of his own.

FAIRNESS

I don't like when bias and prejudice happen around me, it makes me feel uncomfortable when other people or even me experience these awful qualities.

COURAGE

I always face challenges and fears with courage, because I always believe that the challenges that come to my life will build me to become a better person, and I also believe that being always in your "Comfort Zone" will make you weak.

CREATIVITY

I have always been creative when it comes to embracing innovation and original thinking, like when I make school works or any activities, I always complete them by being creative in order to make it wonderful.

GROWTH

I always believe that aiming for personal development is a life goal that everyone needs to achieve in order to become the better version of themselves.

COMMUNITY

Valuing social connections is very important for creating a sense of belonging and support. I believe that strong relationships and mutual support within a community create a positive environment where everyone can thrive and grow together.

WHO AM I ONLINE???

Online, I have always been the funny guy, always sharing pictures of memes, sharing funny videos, but sometimes I share wholesome contents like encouraging and motivational posts. Sometimes I would also share contents that are aligned with my hobbies, like: anime, video games, sports, and many more entertaining contents across my social media accounts and platforms.

PS: I don't really post images and videos online, I prefer sharing interesting contents than posting my face online. I'm also often use Instagram cause I prefer watching contents on Facebook rather than looking at the faces of famous people that doesn't even know me.
